

ROTARY CLUB OF STEVESTON

Club Bulletin for November 21, 2006

OPENING:

President Jack Evans welcomed the members and guests to the breakfast meeting at 7:00am. Thelma McGolrick –toast to the Queen and Country. Bob Jones ---invocation.

GUESTS:

Ian Rose - Rotary Club of Vancouver
Hark Wylie - Lions Club

NOTES:

- Hark Wylie from the Steveston Lions Club, asked for assistance for the Annual Santa Parade as it was difficult to find volunteers for Christmas Eve. A discussion ensued where many members indicated that due to family commitments and traditions, they would not be able to assist that evening. It was recommended moving the event from Christmas Eve to another date. Sally Houston suggested in future years it could coincide with the Steveston Parade of Lights.
- President Jack Evans recognized and acknowledged the Rotary information and ad in the Richmond news and congratulated Danica Meursing and her team for the great work and effort.
- ADG Gordon Dalglish talked about the Foundation Dinner which provided matching funds donated that evening by Rotarians. The highlight of the evening was their entry into the Karaoke competition, with Gordon clearly indicating that the audience would be happy to know that this is the first and last participation!
- Doug Nielson passed around a volunteer list for the Steveston Community Lunch on December 23.
- Bill McNulty asked all members to complete the form provided for their Foundation contribution.

GUEST SPEAKER

Ian Rose provided an interesting presentation on the “Kids of Honduras”, work he is closely involved in. He shared stories and information with the members about the plight of children, the dismal living conditions, the poor state of hospitals, etc., which moved and touched everyone in the room. With surprisingly minimal amounts of funds, a great deal can be accomplished and put to work.
