

ROTARY CLUB OF STEVESTON

Club Bulletin for April 17, 2007

OPENING:

President Jack Evans welcomed members and guests to the 7:00 am meeting.

Dieter Howald – Toast. A moment of silence by all for the victims of the recent event in Virginia.

GUESTS:

John Ward - Rotary Club of North Vancouver

NOTES:

- Don Pfeffer talked about the logistics and volunteers needed for the upcoming Seafood and Wine Festival.
- Pat Branch talked about the food and setup and it was agreed to purchase extra oysters.
- Sally Houston was concerned about the contributions and encouraged ALL members to bring items in asap that could be put into gift baskets. Thelma and Sally are going to start putting these together on Thursday, so there is an urgency to donate.
- Bill Brooke reviewed the setup for the day and the requirement to pick up tables. Bill outlined the required tasks and assigned names. Danuta Mount will send out the list to all.
- A reminder to bring the microphone was noted as well as each person needs to be responsible to ensure that no plates or glasses are placed on any artifacts.
- Cleanup at the end of the evening is a requirement for all to participate in. Volunteers had been assigned for table return the next day.
- John Ward from North Vancouver Rotary, talked about his club’s 17,000 “ducks” fundraiser and provided raffle tickets - with a prizes such as a Caribbean cruise.
- Jim Toogood said most arrangements for the upcoming Jimmy Ng event were going well, but has decided to put more focus on it after the wine festival. However, he is looking for raffle prizes such as jackets, hats etc.
- Sally Houston advised that we are committed to 3 pages at $150 each for the upcoming District directory - there were 2 business pages that needed to be taken - with a deadline of May 1. Two members stepped up and committed to the pages.
